Please Note

The energies in this workshop are very powerful and can affect people in different ways. It is a condition of booking that students attending this workshop inform the facilitator if they have any past or current history of the following: problems with alcohol and/or drug abuse, problems in the past, or currently experiencing problems, with mental issues where those issues are being treated with medication; if you have any other medical condition or disability which may require special arrangements, or that you feel I should be made aware of, for example, but not exclusively, diabetes, angina, epilepsy; if you are currently taking or will be taking any medication during the workshop; if you have previously been affected in any adverse way during any energy work. It is your responsibility, for your own wellbeing, to inform and discuss with the facilitator any of the above before booking this workshop.

Please complete and/or delete below as appropriate and sign and confirm that you have read and understand all of the above:

I have nothing to advise the facilitator of

I have advised and discussed with the facilitator my condition/medication/situation and accept responsibility for my own wellbeing. Please specific details overleaf.
